

Iniquity - Part A

people like you and me (maybe you've never studied Hebrew or Greek) -someone like us can come along and read a verse, and go look up any word in that verse. James Strong will tell you what it means. He will give you the definition taken from Greek and Hebrew. It's one of the most valuable tools that you'll ever have in your Bible study. There are a series of books that use the Strong's numbers. There are Bibles you can get that already have the Strong's number in the Bible itself; every word will have a Strong's number to point you to the definition.

Why is that important? I, for one, got tired of people telling me. I mean, we would be doing a study and somebody would say "well, the Greek says" and "well, that isn't what it says in the Hebrew". I heard someone say one time, "I may have never studied Greek and Hebrew; maybe I don't know it, but I sure have some dandy books that will help me."

God has given us these tools. You can get the Strong's Concordance for a King James and for an NIV. I don't know of any other version that is numbered to Strong's, but the NIV and the King James – (whichever one you are using) – if you get a Strong's, when I give you a definition, you can look it up and see that I'm not making this up. You can look it up for yourself and not rely on me, and you know, to be at my mercy to tell you the truth. I've never like that and I can't understand why everybody doesn't already have these books. Let's go back to Exodus 34.

Exodus 34, looking at verse 7: "keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving h5375 (lifting up) the word forgiving you'll see a Hebrew number beside it. A Strong's number for the Hebrew. That word is not to forgive, it means "to lift up". He will lift up iniquity and transgression. The word is not to forgive, - it means to "lift up". He will lift up iniquity and transgression h6588 (rebellion) and sin...

The word "transgression" has a Strong's number of h6588. It literally means REBELLION and SIN. So, what do we have? INIQUITY, REBELLION and SIN. Thought/ feeling/ action. INIQUITY – the thought, that when you act on it, it becomes sin.

Get a Concordance and look it up for yourself. What we're seeing here, is that SIN BEGINS IN YOUR MIND, and when He says He "lifts up iniquity, rebellion and sin", that is, lifting it up from YOU, from your mind – from your THINKING. Let me show you where this comes into play. Turn with me to Psalms 32.

Psalms 32: starting at verse 1: Blessed is he whose transgression h6588 (rebellion) (there's Rebellion) is forgiven h5375 (lifted up) whose sin is covered 2 Blessed is the man unto whom the Lord imputes not iniquity and in his Spirit there's no guile. Now, I want you to drop down to verse 5.

It says 5 I acknowledged my sin unto you and mine iniquity have I not hid and I said I will confess my transgressions h6588 (rebellion) (or my feeling) unto the Lord and thou forgave h5375 (lifted up) the iniquity of my sin.

So, when He lifts up the INIQUITY of your sin, that is out of your MIND. In other words, for Him to lift INIQUITY, He is going to give you the truth. He is going to cleanse you of that thought. There's another place.

I want to turn to. This is in the New Testament. Turn with me in your Bibles to 1 John,

Iniquity – Part - A

Chapter 1, reading from verse 9: If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sin and cleanse us from all g93 (iniquity). What do you think that word is? That's INIQUITY. He will cleanse you from all INIQUITY; you confess your sin and he'll cleanse you from iniquity.

That's what we want. We want to be cleansed from the THOUGHT that is moving us to sin! Now, an example. Let's say that your spouse comes home three or four hours late and your first thought when they haven't come home, is they're having an affair. See? That THOUGHT is INIQUITY. Love will bear all things, hope all things, believe all things, be long suffering, be patient. But to just jump to the conclusion they must be having an affair – that's INIQUITY – so that THOUGHT is going to create in you a FEELING. A feeling of anger or jealousy. Like the Bible put, rebellion against that person, so that when they walk through the door the way you approach them and what you say to them- your attitude toward them will be based on that INIQUITY that was in your mind. Who knows what you might say or do? Whereas, if you're walking in love, maybe you would meet them at the door and say "did you have a wreck or did you have a flat tire? What happened? Are you okay? Can I help you?" There are a thousand different ways to address that issue, but to allow INIQUITY to control your life – that leads to SIN. This is significant, because there is something I want you to see about Jesus Christ.

Paul wrote this: It's Titus 2: 14.: who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people; zealous of good works. And since we're looking at the writings of Paul, - 2 Timothy 2:19 - nevertheless the foundation of God stands sure having this seal. The Lord knows them that are his and let everyone that names the name of Christ depart from iniquity.

Christ gave himself to redeem us from iniquity. Now, notice what he DIDN'T say. He did NOT say he DIED TO PAY YOUR SIN DEBT. According to Titus 2:14 he died to KEEP YOU FROM SIN. He redeems you from iniquity and if you're in Christ, if you're a Christian walking with Christ, then you WILL depart from all iniquity. Think about it. WHY does that even matter?" Let's turn and look at one more verse:

This one is in Matthew 7:21 Not everyone that says unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter the kingdom of heaven, but he that does the will of my Father, which is in heaven. (You want to walk in obedience and do the will of God.)

22 Many will say to me in that day, Lord, have we not prophesied in your name? In your name we've cast out devils. In your name we've done many wonderful works.

23 Then I will profess unto them, I never knew you. Depart from me, ye that work iniquity.

Who would say that we've done many wonderful things in your name? We've cast out devils in your name. We've done many wonderful works, but believers? Christians would say that.

But he says, "But I never knew you." See, the people who are going to enter into heaven, are those who do the will of God. If you're a believer; if you're a Christian, you will depart from all iniquity. He died to give you the ability to depart from INIQUITY.

And when the day come, he will say, "depart from me, ye workers of iniquity." So at this point, if you're a Christian, if you're going to church somewhere and you happen to get hold of this study and you're looking at it, considering all of the doctrines you've been told -- I want you to consider this: I've simply read verses to you. I'm not making anything up. I've simply taken the verses of the Bible and read them.

Iniquity – Part - A

to you to show you that God gives you a way out from your iniquity. You can come to him and confess your sin; confess the rebellion. Confess the INIQUITY. He will lift up that iniquity. He will cleanse you from all unrighteousness, but who has ever told you to do that?

You know, when I was going to the denominational churches, I would sin and repent. Sin and repent. Sin and repent. It just went on and on and I wondered if the Holy Spirit leaves me every time I sin? You know, what's going on here?

I want you to consider what we've read together from the scripture, and in our next installment of our STAR Projects, we're going to look at where iniquity comes from and I want you to see – begin to see how Christ deals with this at the cross. The cross is so much more than just having your sin forgiven! It's giving you the ability to overcome sin when it says that he will save his people from their sin. I was only told, "oh, he'll forgive you." Well, it means more than that – he DIED to REDEEM you from the INIQUITY and to give you the ability to turn and think in another direction and walk in the righteousness of God.

The next installment of the STAR Projects will be deal with "Where does iniquity come from? "
